Fogg's Corner

Good day all,

I hope this note finds you well and relishing in the love of Jesus. What a beautiful weekend we enjoyed as we are down to the final three weeks of school. Thank you again to all who have registered for the 2019-20 school year. Should your plans change, please make sure you contact Melanie Engle so our class assignments are as balanced as possible. We try to make sure a balanced gender and academic strength are considered and we want as much opportunity as possible so we aren't changing class assignments in August. Have a great rest of the week,

Tom
