Dean Sikes' Ministry

Yesterday, March 2nd Our middle school had an assembly with Dean Sikes' YOU Matter program! He was a captivating and dynamic speaker that inspired our students to listen from the heart and show kindness to themselves and others. Since January 1993, Dean Sikes has been a voice of hope to young people across America and in nations around the world.

Dean Sikes' says, "Our mission is simple: Ours is a voice of hope called to inspire teenagers from all walks of life with this truth: You were created as an original; you were created for relationship; and you were created to fulfill a purpose. Our message: is likewise simple and to the point. You're breathing, YOU MATTER. We want every young person, everywhere, to have the opportunity to hear, to consider, and to then respond to our message and its truth."

This is a free service for the students and community. Our school is grateful to partner with this ministry.

Counseling Services

To keep our counseling team organized, parents please use the referral link to request services for your child. There are opportunities for group and one-on-one sessions. This is a great tool for requesting ongoing counseling check-ins. Counselors are also proactive in preventative classroom training. Some of the challenges they help students process are emotional regulation, interpersonal relationships, and coping skills for anxiety, depression, and stress.
